

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
OF LACKAWANNA COUNTY

MAURI B KELLY
LACKAWANNA COUNTY

2023 AUG 24 A 11: 22

CLERK OF JUDICIAL
RECORDS CIVIL DIVISION

MARK F. SCHRANER, MARI T. CARR, :
Individually, and on behalf of all others :
similarly situated, :

Plaintiffs, :

v. :

NORTHEAST REVENUE SERVICE, :
LLC, and THE CITY OF SCRANTON, :
PA, :

Defendants. :

CIVIL ACTION – LAW

No. 2019-04243

ORDER AWARDING ATTORNEYS’ FEES, REIMBURSING LITIGATION COSTS AND AWARDING SERVICE AWARDS TO CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

AND NOW this 24th day of August, 2023, a hearing having been held before this Court to: (a) determine whether to grant final approval to the certification of the Settlement Classes; (b) determine whether to finally designate Plaintiffs as the representatives of the Settlement Classes; (c) determine whether to finally designate Class Counsel as counsel for the Settlement Classes; (d) determine whether to grant final approval to the Settlement; (e) rule on Class Counsel’s Application for a Fee and Expense Award; (f) rule on the Class Representatives’ Application for Class Representative Service Awards; and (g) consider whether to enter the Final Approval Order.

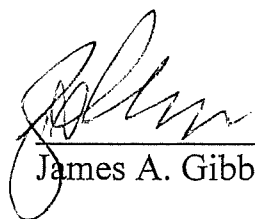

- b. Reimbursement of out-of-pocket litigation expenses in the amount of $ 7,725.⁶⁹ to be paid from the Settlement Fund.
- c. Service Awards for each Class Representative in the amount of $2,500 payable to Mark F. Schraner and $2,500 payable to Mari T. Carr to be paid from the Settlement Fund.

5. The Settlement Administrator appointed by the Court, Epiq Claims Administrator (“Epiq”), shall also be paid from the Settlement Fund for its services as Settlement Administrator.

6. All payments should be processed as directed in the Settlement Agreement.

7. Class Counsel retains the discretion to distribute and allocate the awarded attorneys’ fee as it deems appropriate among counsel for Plaintiffs.

BY THE COURT:

_____, J.
James A. Gibbons